I heard this song called "Brighter" by Paramore. It is on their first c.d. called All We Know Is Falling. It is not as up beat and head banging as their other songs like "Crush Crush Crush" or "Misery Business". But that is good because that shows that they can do a wide range of different songs. Hayley Williams is such an amazing singer! The way she says each word in the lyrics is great. I am obsessed with her voice. I love when she says "I wave goodbye tonight." it is cool. Don't get me wrong the music is good too! But she would also be a good soloist. I like the beginning guitar. It is just simple and starts the beat for the music. I wish they could go back and make a music video for this song but it is pretty old so I doubt it will happen. I am lucky I found this song because I was just searching Paramore on YouTube and this popped up towards the top. I love it! All the music and her voice fit together perfectly! When I bought this song on iTunes it said album version next to it... I don't know what that means but I wonder if there is another version of this song out there. I am going to try and find it because I like this song so much that I bet the second version is even better or pretty darn close.

Here are the lyrics for "Brighter":

So this is how it goes

Well I, I would have never known

And if it ends today

Well, I'll still say that you shine brighter than anyone

Now I think we're taking this too far

Don't you know that it's not this hard?

Well it's not this hard

But if you take what's yours and I take mine

Must we go there?

Please not this time. No, not this time.

Well this is not your fault
But if I'm without you
Then I will feel so small
And if you have to go
Always know that you shine brighter than anyone does.

Now I think we're taking this too far
Don't you know that it's not this hard?
Well it's not this hard
But if you take what's yours and I take mine
Must we go there?
Please not this time. No, not this time.

If you run away now,
Will you come back around?
And if you ran away,
I'd still wave goodbye
Watching you shine bright.

Now I think we're taking this too far
Don't you know that it's not this hard?
Well it's not this hard
But if you take what's yours and I take mine
Must we go there?
Please not this time. No, not this time.

I'll wave goodbye
Watching you shine bright
(You shine bright, you shine bright)
I'll wave goodbye tonight.
