I am not that much into country but I actually do like country singing, Taylor Swift. Her music seems to have more than just country in it, it also sounds kind of like pop music to me. I also like how I can recognize her on the radio. Usually when I here many country artist, I can't tell the difference between their voices. They all sound alike to me, especially male country singers. They all sound alike and dress alike, jeans, cowboy hat and boots.

My favorite song sang by Taylor Swift is "Picture To Burn" because has such a cute idea. It is about Taylor Swift discovering her boyfriend is cheating on her so she is just saying it didn't mean anything to her and he is just another "Picture To Burn" and saying stuff like

The music video of "Picture To Burn" is also another cute idea. She finds her boyfriend cheating and decides to get her friends and tear up him home. They toilet paper his house, like his silverware, and my personal favorite they backwash in his mouthwash. Kinda gross but also the perfect revenge for a cheating boyfriend.

My second favorite by Taylor Swift is "Our Song". This song is also very cute because she is in love and wants a song to share with her love. Then she sings that she prays for God to play there song again. It is just very cute with lots of good singing.

"Our Song" also has a good music video. She is all giggly and constantly smiling. Taylor Swift did a good job of playing a cute girlfriend that is excited about her first love. If she wasn't as good as she was then I don't think the music video could have been better.{youtube}G6s5cxBN8mA{/youtube}

And the last song that I love by her is "Teardrops On My Guitar". This is the first song that I heard by her and once again this is a very cute song. This is a song to listen to when you are upset about someone you like that likes someone else. She has the perfect lyrics like "I fake a smile, so he won't see". Everyone has faked a smile to convince others that they are fine. So people can relate to this song.

The music video of "Teardrops On My Guitar" is better than "Our Song" because it has other people and shows us exactly what is going on. They show the guy she is crushing on, hit on another girl. And they also show her always looking at him and crying on her guitar which goes with the title. I just like that you can see what is happening and you can be upset along with Taylor Swift. {youtube}R7DRtl6CTqc{/youtube}

These are not all of the songs I like by Taylor Swift but they are my top three. She is an amazing artist and has a lot of talent. You will definitely see more about Taylor Swift in the future. She is the best country singer by far.
