Jonathan Rhys Meyers is our number 91 hottest guy on the list. Jonathan Rhys Meyers is an Irish film actor and does some TV shows.

I recognize him from the movie, August rush. I loved this movie and I loved him in it. But other than that I do not know anything else he was in, probably because he does Irish films. Maybe they don't show them all here in the United States.

Okay on the reasons why Jonathan Rhys Meyers is hot.. Okay number one, have you seen him? He has a hot body! Obviously because he has also modeled for Club Monaco, Versace, and Hugo Boss. I guess he could be a little buffer but if he was than he would be perfect and nobody is perfect... except the top five hottest guys. You will find out who they are soon enough.

He has a sweet smile. He also has a contagious smile. When you look at his smile you can't help but to smile with him. It is so sweet. It is big and white. White is the number one most important factor in having a great smile. The second most important factor is straight teeth which Jonathan Rhys Meyers has. And the third most important factor to having a great smile is actually smiling. Being happy and having fun makes you smile and that is a big factor of being sexy.

Up at the top I said Jonathan Rhys Meyers has shiny blue eyes. I didn't say just blue because they are truly SHINY blue. Which is better than just blue. I mean his eyes are gorgeous. When I first saw him I was trapped inside his eyes just in wonder on how beautiful they are. I was in a daze that I wanted to stay in forever. Well you get my point. This man has amazing shiny blue eyes.

So we finally have our first ten on our way down the hottest guys list. But luckily we still have 90 hotties to go. I wonder who they could be?
