For our number 86 is Pete Wentz or if you want to call him by his full name, Peter Lewis Kingston Wentz the third. He is a vocalist and the bass guitar player for a cool alternative band called Fall Out Boy. This guy is kind of weird, I mean, either every girl is obsessed with how hot he is or he is really ugly to them. I think he is hot but only 86 material. I think it is a mix of a couple of different things.

I like guys a little on the skinny side but still have muscle. Pete Wentz is a perfect mix in between both of those. He isn't so skinny that you can see right through him but he isn't so big that you can't see anything around him. He has enough muscle to be the man and do the heavy lifting but not that he can lift up a couch with one arm.

I think it is so weird that I love the alternative Goth look on guys. I am not even near Goth but for some reason they are all super hot! Pete Wentz is so hot in his unique alternative clothes and hair. I love the way he some times spikes it in all different directions.

Plus his tattoos! Tattoos are always hot on a guy, if their tattoos are not everywhere and they aren't just random tattoos that they felt like getting. I love Pete Wentz's tattoo on his abs, I have never seen anything like it. So kudos to Pete for actually taking the time to think of something more original than barbed wire on his arm.

A lot of people think he is ugly because he is short? This man is 5'7". Compared to me, that is not short. I like tall guys but not super tall guys. I do not want to stand on a chair just to be able to give them a kiss. So I do not think Pete Wentz is short. Not at all. It is a good height range to be in.

Pete Wentz also made the 100 hot guy list just because I like him. He has a funny cool sense of humor. And he isn't afraid to be himself. I looked up pictures of him and most and making a funny face and being weird. Guys need to be weird once in awhile.

I do not care if this just got married and is pregnant with one of my favorite artists, Ashlee Simpson. I will take that chick on. I can beat her in a thumb war. My thumbs are small but they are spry and they will take on her lean pregnant thumbs any time, any place. Ha-ha. I am just messin' Ashlee Simpson (if you're reading this, I will take you on in a thumb war but not over your man) I am happy for you both of you.

Wow we are down fifteen but we still have eighty five more hot guys to go. Do you know who is coming next or have some ideas on who should be number one? Well.. Too bad, nobody could ever change my mind on the top twenty. They are flawless. Doesn't that make you curious on who they are? Ha-ha. Just wait and see.
