Jensen Ackles, number 83 on our list, is the ultimate bad boy, with baby blues and a lopsided grin; fights demons. Oh wait, that's Dean Winchester, the character he plays on Supernatural. I'm sure in real life Ackles has his hands full fighting off fans, after all, he was just voted the sexiest Sci Fi star by TV Guide readers.

"By far the sexiest man on the planet. His lips are the most perfect lips I've seen, and then there's that body — long, lean and perfectly muscled. He's not the sexiest sci-fi star, he's the sexiest man alive." - a reader

Ackles is a country boy at heart, born in Dallas Texas, though he has lives on location in Vancouver for filming a number of television series; Dark Angel, Dawson's Creek, Smallville and most recently Supernatural. It should be noted that Vancouver's weather is chilly and rainy. This is probably why there aren't more topless photos available. I'm prepared to start a petition asking producers to relocate to Malibu, so Jensen can frolic in the ocean alongside Matthew McConaughey.

The paparazzi will have their hands full with these two hunks. Until then, Ackles manages to keep a pretty low profile — a guess the stalkarazzi aren't interested in freezing off their bits and pieces crouching in a soggy bush to snag a photo. It was rumored he dated Leeann Rymes and Jessica Simpson (I know - who hasn't?) but lately he's the arm candy of Daneel Harris. He was quoted in the French Magazine Salut: "It's just that I'm very shy with girls, I'm incapable of "flirting". When I find a girl I like, I don't know how to approach her."

When he's not busy kicking butt, he's riding horses (natch), snowboarding or surfing (photos! I want photos!) He sings and plays guitar; likes baseball, video games and milk shakes. Basically, he's the perfect man — unless you're a demon, then you better run like hell.

That is why Jensen Ackles came in number 83. But he is not what really matters anymore, what's important is number 82, then 81, then before we know it top twenty! We will get there soon enough, you just relax and enjoy the ride.
