Adam Sandler is… he is… there is not just one word to describe Adam Sandler. Even his job title involves more than one word: comedian, actor, musician, screenwriter, and film producer. He has time to do all that and still be a family man for his wife, Jacqueline Samantha Titone, and his daughter Sadie Madison Sandler.

For years I have dreamed of marrying Adam Sandler. He has all the qualities that I am searching for in a man. Every time I see him, he brings a smile on my face. Not only is he a huge A-list celebrity but he is also completely normal. You don’t hear too much about him in the tabloids and he isn’t out there for the world to see.

He is one of my favorite actors and one of the funniest people ever. He obviously shows that in his movies like, “I Now Pronounce You Chuck and Larry” or “Happy Gilmore”. But he has proven that he can be more than just the funny one. He made me cry with his father figure in his movie Spanglish. It just proved what a sweet man he really is.

I love to see guys always smile. And Adam Sandler always has a smile on his face. It just shows that he is a happy person and probably has a lot of laughter in his life. Plus I know I say this about every guy on the list but he has a super cute smile. It is wide and he has sweet little dimples. You can not tell me that you don’t like his dimples? So cute.

Adam Sandler is so awesome and hot! He is the perfect man, but of course he is taken. But those are the reasons why the one and only Adam Sandler made the list at #80. He should be higher on the list but he is taken so that is why I placed him at #80. We still got 79 more to go on the hot guys list.
