Adriana Lima

June 12, 1981

Yes I am giving you another Victoria's Secret model in Adrian Lima, but I just couldn't resist. Take a look at the first full size picture and tell me that isn't one of the sexiest pictures ever taken. When you look at as many hot pics as I do you can really start to see the difference in not only the quality of the photograph but the quality of the photoshop person behind the scenes. Yes I realize that there is no way that any human being could look that perfect, but I don't care because who need reality when you have an airbrush.

I am certainly not trying to imply that Adriana isn't hott, because she is absolutely one of the hottest girls on the planet. She is so hot that she has been compared to one of my all time favorites Catherine Zeta-Jones. No one could compare to Catherine but Adriana has a major plus that she doesn't have. You never have to look at Michael Douglas when you are looking at Adrian, and unfortunately that is not the case with Catherine. It is like looking at the most beautiful woman in the world and seeing a giant cancerous growth hanging off of the entire side of her body. This isn't about her though it is about the beautiful and sexy Ms. Lima.

Take a look at all of these super hot pics and you will certainly understand why she is one of the top supermodels in the world. And yes the picture right below these words is what the dreams of men are made of.
Have fun!
