Mumbai, India

I have another young hott girl for you today. At the tender age of just 22 years old, Ayesha Takia is already making a big name for herself in Bollywood. Now this may come as a surprise to some of you but India has some of the prettiest women in the world and most of them are actresses of Bollywood. Not that anyone would expect them to only pick up ugly chicks but I must say that Hollywood could learn a few lessons here. First I have never seen a Bollywood actress that I thought might starve to death before the end of the movie, unlike most American actresses.

Secondly the girls are flat out hott and picked for their hotness specifically. Whereas American films seem to pick girls on their skinniness and notoriety. Take Paris Hilton for example. Not even close to hott and completely talent less. But that is an article for another day; today it is all about the beautiful and talented Ayesha Takia. Take a close look at her hot pics and you will see a young woman who is coming into her prime with all of the right curves and assets. Yes I am completely infatuated with her sexy body and by the time you look at all of these photos you will be too.
