Name: LL Cool J (real name: James Todd Smith)

Birth: January 14, 1968 in St. Albans, Queens, New York City

Eye Color: brown

Hair Color: baldy!

Height: 6'1"

Sign: Capricorn

Rank: #77

Our next hottie on the list is LL Cool J. Despite what we all think, LL Cool J is not all muscles, he is also an awesome actor and an amazing music artist. My favorite scene in "Last Holiday" starring the one and only LL Cool J and Queen Latifah, is when LL Cool J starts taking off his shirt and licking his lips... good movie.

Back to the muscles, those perfected large muscles. His abs, pecks, biceps, triceps, and every other body part are absolutely made of stone. Muscles, period, are just sexy. So not including everything else about him, he is sexy just because of his muscles alone.

But if you are counting everything else, I guess we can start with his sweet smile. He is another one with a little grin that makes your heart almost stop and then have it speed up like the drivers of NASCAR. He doesn't look like the type of guy that has a beautiful smile from a far but then he comes up and he is one of the cutest men ever. His lips are the biggest lips I have ever seen and they are adorable when he smiles.

LL Cool J also has a cute personality. Anyone who can work with Queen Latifah in a romantic movie must have a good personality. The roles actors choose really show a lot about their personality. Well to the exception of him being a murderer in an episode of House. I can just picture LL Cool J being a nice person and a sweet dad.

Well those are just some of the many reasons why LL Cool J is number 77 on my hot guys list. I know I really didn't have to explain to you, you can see it for yourself. Unless you are a guy and you are wondering what makes him so irresistible to women. Simply irresistible!
